

The Smart Policing action focuses on the supply of modern portable electronic devices of the "Smart Phone" type, which through a single application / interface searches the existing databases (National and European) and captures biometric characteristics (through the scanning method), license plate numbers and document details, achieve the fast and secure search and identification of vehicles, persons and objects.